Book: Everything, Everything

By: Nicola Yoon

The world outside the home of 18-year-old Madeline Whittier is filled with threats: viruses, allergens, bacteria, deadly airborne particles. These are all things that Madeline's compromised immune system can't handle. She has SCID (severe combined immunodeficiency), causing her to be isolated in her house. Madeline is a princess trapped in a castle — except her castle is a spotless, decontaminated house in Los Angeles with white walls, where she lives with her mother. But then one day a new neighbor moves in. He catches Madeline looking — he stares at her and she stares back. Madeline realizes quickly that she is going to fall in love with him and it's almost certainly going to be a disaster.

Instant #1 New York Times Bestseller! Soon to be a major motion picture starring Amandla Stenberg and Nick Robinson!

Available Formats: This book is available in print and audio CD, as an audio recording from the National Library for the Blind and the Michigan Braille and Talking Book Library, and on Kindle and Nook. Disability Network Southwest Michigan has copies of the book and audio CD available to borrow, and the book and audio recording is available at many local libraries.
