TRAVEL TRAINING

Disability Network Southwest Michigan's Travel Training Program is available at no cost to individuals and groups in Kalamazoo County who are interested in learning how to use public transportation.

We offer a variety of services to increase your knowledge of Metro's fixed-route bus service and Metro Connect's demand response service.

Travel Training includes:

- Instruction on basic public transportation skills including safety, bus rules, and trip planning
- Instruction on how to ride the bus and Metro Connect services
- A tour of the Transit Center
- Assistance applying for reduced fare for senior citizens and people with disabilities

Contact us today to schedule an individual or group training or a community presentation.
