

Accommodations for All

Join us for this live interactive web training
from the Job Accommodation Network

Trainers from JAN will be presenting information for employees and employers on job accommodations for hidden disabilities. Question and answer sessions will be available during the webcast.

Hidden disabilities are common and may require an accommodation to perform the essential functions of a person's job. This training will address accommodations for hidden disabilities from the perspective of both the employee and the employer.

JAN is the leading source of free, expert, and confidential guidance on workplace accommodations and disability employment issues. Working toward practical solutions that benefit both employer and employee, JAN helps people with disabilities enhance their employability, and shows employers how to capitalize on the value and talent that people with disabilities add to the workplace.
